

I presented this "Diploma" to my good wife as a Birthday present. She was filled with pride and happiness, and had it hung for 4 years over her desk where she worked until 2 weeks before she died on the 14th August 1961.

S.S. No. 209

Mrs. CLAIRE BLISS

in profound Appreciation of her invaluable, indispensable and untiring services as

Accountant

for the following enterprises:

- BLISS FILM SERVICE, Shanghai, China .. .. . 1940-1945
- BLISS CAMERA SHOP, U.S. Army Post Exchange, Shanghai 1945-1946
- BLISS SEMANTOGRAPHY PUBLISHING CO., Sydney .. 1946-
- BLISS DRY CLEANER and STOCKING CENTRE, Sydney 1950-1957
- BLISS PRIVATE HOTEL, Sydney .. .. . 1957-

acting also as treasurer, despatcher, correspondent, companion, loving and beloved wife, AND LAST BUT FOREMOST, as heroic fighter against the Concentration Camp Gestapo, Vienna, 1938-1939.

---

Presented at her umptieth Birthday (many happy returns) by her ab-so-lu-te-ly crazy husband, who is going to think up more crazy enterprises for her to work in.