

Sydney 28 August, 1978.

Dear Participant of the Correspondence Course,

Please read the list and find out which paper you have or have not received. Please write to me and request those papers you have not received, especially whether or not you have received the textbook of 882 pages SEMANTOGRAPHY-BLISSYMBOLICS. I will be away for 3 months on lecture tours in Canada, the U.S.A. and Great Britain. But my assistants will endeavour to send you those papers you want to have.

LIST OF ALL PAPERS, CIRCULAR LETTERS, LESSONS, BOOKS AND PRINTED MATTER USED ON BEHALF OF THE SCHOOLS COMMISSION GRANT CORRESPONDENCE COURSE

Number	Contents and Remarks
1.	Address to the Principals of Schools for Special Education in all Australian States, asking them to distribute Paper No.2 to their Teachers, Therapists Speech Pathologists, Nurses, etc.
2.	An Invitation to Teachers, Therapists, Speech Pathologists etc. to join in a free Correspondence Course on Blissymbolics.
3.	Address to the Directors-General of all Australian States, containing the Papers no. 4,5, and 6 (see below).
4.	The Reprint from the Australian Edition of the Reader's Digest containing the article "The Magic Language of Charles Bliss."
5.	"Blissymbolics, a Picture Writing" - an article which appeared in the educational journal "Challenge" of the Education Department of Victoria.
6.	Sample of the Diploma which will be given to those students who have successfully concluded the Correspondence Course.
7.	Circular Letter to all who have enrolled in the Correspondence Course.
8.	Introduction to the new Correspondence Course containing the new method of studying alone and examining yourself.
9.	The textbook of 882 pages SEMANTOGRAPHY-BLISSYMBOLICS by C.K. Bliss.
10.	First lesson.
11.	Special exercise book with ruled squares and how to use it to teach yourself and answer questions.
12.	The transcript of the lecture which Charles Bliss gave in the University of Ottawa on 9 June, 1977, in which he explained and castigated the false and illogical symbol perversions sold all over the world from the Toronto based Blissymbolics Communication Institute (BCI) which falsifications must ruin the logical sense of the children and retard their mental development.
13.	Letter of the legal aid defender of Charles Bliss dated 25 November, 1977, in which he declared the Licensing Agreement between Charles Bliss and the BCI null and void and forbade the BCI to use, teach, publish or sell Blissymbols.
14.	The Tourist Folder containing 30 international symbols and 29 pictorial Blissymbols and over 250 combinations of these basic symbols.
15.	A List of Questions to be answered in writing (in preparation).
16.	Second Lesson (in preparation - to be sent to you soon).
17.	This List.

I am, with kind regards, and with my best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Charles Bliss

Charles K. Bliss B.Sc. A.M.